

Windows and Doors Comparison Chart

Company	Duratherm	Little Harbor Window Co.	Wooden Screen Door Company
Address	720 Main St, Vassalboro, ME 04989	11 Little Harbor Rd,, Berwick, ME 03901	3542 Atlantic Highway, Waldoboro, ME 04572
Phone	(207) 872-5558	1-800-597-6344	(207)832-0519
Website	http://www.durathermwindow.com/	http://littleharborwindow.com/	www.woodenscreendoorcompany.com
Source of wood	North America and the world	New Hampshire supplier	Africa
Products	Contemporary styles including awning, casement, double hung, lift roll, etc.	Traditional custom windows and doors	Traditional, Victorian, classic, whimsical or custom
Species	Exterior: mahogany, teak, cypress, white oak. Interior: cherry, maple, ash	Mahogany	Mahogany
Fun fact	Supplied windows to the Barnes Museum in Philadelphia, known for its complex window requirements	A scenic sunset photo, that included one of its projects, won readers photo contest sponsored by Down East magazine	In 23rd year of business
Finish	Standard finish is waterborne, low VOC	priming and staining	Doors are produced primed in white, using a shellac-based primer, at no additional cost. Optional unprimed/bare wood finish is available, at additional cost
Where available	Directly through Duratherm	Direct from Berwick	Direct from Waldoboro
LEED Certification	Yes	No	No
Green certified	Upon request	No	In the process
Specialty	Combination of hand-crafted and CNC produced	Combination of precision machining and hand work	Door depth is 1 1/16" thick. Mortise and tenon, glued and pegged joinery throughout
Custom orders	Only custom orders	Yes	Yes